1. Akanksha Roy from Monte Vista High School gave a presentation on the dangers of teens vaping. She suggested the commission promote her website and art exhibit on social media.

OLD BUSINESS

2. Youth Commission work plan and subcommittee development
 - h. College and Beyond: Looking into more ideas for the job fair webpage. Will have ideas by the end of the week to share with other commissioners.
 - i. Academics: Read Across America event had low attendance. Commissioners believe this could have been due to the age group and midweek scheduling. They are starting plans for a writing contest for an older age range.
 - j. Civic Engagement: Working on getting a list of local politicians to email about coffee and politics. Will have the emails out by the end of the week.
 - k. Environment: Jeopardy event was successful and fun. Will be working on Earth Day ideas soon.

- I. Wellness: Commissioners are working on ideas for Wellness Week over spring break. This will be an event to encourage people to take care of their wellness. The Parks and Recreation Commission would like to partner with us on this event.
 - m. Recreation: The cake decorating contest was fun. Commissioners are having a meeting soon to come up with ideas for another event.
 - n. Social Justice: Commissioners are planning to have a speaker event on the topic of gender equality, women's rights, etc. They are working on finding speakers for this event.
2. Legacy Project
 - a. Staff liaison Pieracci informed the commissioners that Sunday, March 28th will be the first day to work on the rose project. There will be a new sign up for everyone to pick morning hours or afternoon.
