ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Youth Commission 2026-2027 Term Application: The application for the 2026-2027 term is available online and due by May 1st. For more information and to apply, visit www.campbellca.gov/youthcommission.

2. Stanford Medicine Smart Sendoffs: Smart Sendoffs is a virtual, two-session program for college-bound high school seniors and their parents. Sessions are held live via Zoom: the first session on April 22 from 6:30–8:00 p.m. is for both teens and parents to attend together, while the second session on April 29 from 6:30–8:00 p.m. is for parents only. Trained adolescent health experts lead interactive discussions, guiding teens and parents through important topics and challenges that may arise during the college years. Register at: https://www.stanfordchildrens.org/en/classes/classdetail.html?evt=EB141176557885&id=1980031293901&title=smart-sendoffs-2-sessions

3. Standford Medicine The Chat Program: The Chat consists of two 2-hour sessions designed for preteens (ages 10–12) and a grown-up to attend together. The program covers puberty, sexuality, communication, and decision-making in an informative, engaging, and age-appropriate manner. Its goal is to provide families with opportunities to connect and grow through open conversations about these important topics. The Chat sessions are offered both in-person at the Campbell Community Center and virtually. For more information or to register: https://www.stanfordchildrens.org/en/classes/classdetail?evt=EB767898353647&id=773952381407&title=the-chat-in-person-campbell

OLD BUSINESS

1. City of Campbell's Open House Event
   Recommended action: Review and reflect on Youth Commission's involvement at the Open House.

Teen Community: Discuss information table and different activities provided

- Good engagement with trivia games and face painting booths
- Informed community about youth commission opportunities and upcoming events
- Areas of Improvement: work on getting people to come back for raffle results and decorating the area with banners with information about what is being offered in each place of space

Teen Life Skills: Discuss cooking station

- Keep the event to two main cooking stations, as third station was not that popular
- Safer tools for cooking and cutting

Teen Health and Wellness: Discuss games that were provided

- Demographic strayed from expectation; work on finding more effective ways to get people over to the gym and a better expectation of audience to mold games around them better

2. Work Plan Discussion
   Recommended action: Each Ad Hoc will provide updates on their work plan items.

- Teen Community: Review
- Teen Life Skills: Review social media outreach efforts and provide other updates.
- Teen Health and Wellness: Review outreach progress and provide updates.

NEW BUSINESS

1. Campbell Library Grand Opening Celebration
   Recommended action: The Youth Commission is invited to the Campbell Library Grand Opening Celebration. Determine if the YC would like to participate and host a table at the event Saturday, May 9th from 10am-12pm. Set up will start at 9:30am. Rec staff will not be present. Commissioners should discuss and determine their participation.

- Commissioners decided not to participate due to AP season

2. End of the Year Work Plan Presentation at City Council
   Recommended action: The Youth Commission Chair and Co-Chair will present the End-of-Year Work Plan to City Council on Tuesday, May 5 at 7:00 p.m. All Youth Commissioners are expected to attend in support. The presentation will be under 10 minutes, and Commissioners are anticipated to be excused by approximately 7:30 p.m.

- Working on presentation during Ad-hoc tonight

3. Ad-Hoc Meeting Update
   Recommended Action: With limited remaining items to complete, the Youth Commission should discuss and determine whether to cancel the April Ad-Hoc Meeting and instead finalize any outstanding work immediately following the Regular Meeting on Monday, April 6.

- Teen Life Skills: done with social media posts, line-up to be posted, done with information
- Teen Community: Planning to partner with Adopting a Storm Drain, done with major information
- Teen Wellness: able to finish work tonight
- Decided to cancel next meeting

INFORMATION ONLY

1. Calendar Reminders
   - Next Youth Commission Meeting is on May 4th
   - City Council Meeting is on May 5th (be there before 7 around 6:50-55)
