OLD BUSINESS

1. Clean Water Art Contest
 - a. The clean water art contest was successful. There were 12 art submissions and over 100 people voted using the online poll. Some notes to improve the event in the future would be to coordinate the judge meeting sooner and have flyers to hand out at schools.
2. Coffee & Politics
 - a. The Coffee & Politics event went smoothly. The teens that attended enjoyed getting to talk to the guests. Notes to improve the event in the future include shortening the length, more promotion, incorporate games, have a different food aspect like boba, and provide discussion cards.
3. YAC Attack
 - a. The YAC Attack conference went very well. The commissioners liked meeting other teens and hearing from various presenters. The games for the first presentation were enjoyed and got people into the topic.
4. South Bay Fun Fest
 - a. The SBFF event is coming up on May 15th from 2:00-5:00 pm at the Cupertino Civic Center. Campbell will be hosting the craft booth and photo booth. Some ideas for the booths included fidget toys, decorating cups, origami, lanyards, slime, summer-themed props, and a sign with the event name. The event might use games for raffle tickets instead of performers.
5. Spring Fun Run
 - a. The spring fun run is on May 7th and will need volunteers for the day of as well as some help the week before.
6. Job Fair
 - a. The commissioners discussed whether a job fair can happen this year. A virtual option could work but many felt that people do their own online research and something in person next year would be better to aim for.
